

Projective Group is proud to announce its receipt of the BLCC Golden Bridge Award for "International Growth and Investment." This award highlights the company's impressive growth trajectory and its strategic investments, both of which have solidified its presence in the global financial services sector.,

Since its founding in 2006, Projective Group has expanded rapidly, establishing itself as a trusted partner for financial institutions looking to navigate and thrive in an evolving landscape. The company's unique "Buy & Build" growth model, governed by the principle that "one and one must equal three," has driven an approach to acquisition and partnership that prioritises the enhancement of capabilities and market reach. Projective Group has maximised value for clients while strategically expanding their footprint in key financial hubs worldwide. The company's investments in key financial services cities have strengthened its global network and positioned Projective Group as a comprehensive solutions provider, covering all aspects of financial transformation from data and risk management to talent and compliance. Projective Group's portfolio of partnerships continues to grow, with leading brands such as Exellys, DTSQUARED, and Enigma Consulting, contributing their specialised expertise to enhances the Group's ability to offer holistic, end-to-end solutions.

As Projective Group continues to lead in international growth and investment, this Golden Bridge Award underscores their unwavering commitment to empowering the financial services industry through strategic partnerships, client-focused solutions, and impactful, sustainable practices.